Corcoran's Two Fumbles Cost His Team the Loss of One of the Closest Pitchers' Duels Ever Witnessed

(Special to The Evening World.) AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, NEW YORK, July 3.—Ten thousand persons were on hand when the Highlanders began their second battle with the Athletics this afternoon, and the early part of the game was a quiet one. The Athletics were awarded, Earl Moore, who pitched for New York, had recovered from his knock-out three days ago, and Plank knocked him.

It was announced that Pitchers Brockett and Keefe had been released by the New York management to Montreal, in the Eastern League, and that "Doc" Newton, the great southpaw who was suspended last year for disciplinary conduct, would return to the club to-day. Newton was on the grounds when the game began, but not in uniform.

First Inning.—Cross forced Nichols at second, Moore to Conroy. Seybold sent a long fly to Keeler. Nichols stole second and on Thomas's high throw took third. Davis was out stealing. Thomas to Conroy. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.—Collins and Oldring both walked. Lord filled the bases with a hit to the infield. Powers hit to Moriarty, who threw to the plate, forcing Collins. Thomas whipped the ball to Chase for a double play. Moriarty then worked the old concealed ball trick on Oldring, who had run to third and was standing on the bag. There was a great laugh when Moriarty touched him out. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.—Williams fled to Seybold. Moriarty out. Collins to Davis. Thomas popped out to Collins. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.—Davis went out on a grounder to Conroy. Collins fled out to Hoffman. Oldring's Texas leaguer, back of the plate, was taken in by Moriarty. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.—Lord fled to Chase. Williams threw out Powers. Plank struck out. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.—Conroy threw out Nichols. Cross walked. Seybold forced Cross at second. Conroy hit to Chase. NO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.—Moore threw out Oldring. Conroy made a spectacular jumping catch of Lord's liner. Moriarty got Powers by a check throw to Chase. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.—Plank smashed to center for a home run. Chase fumbled. Nichols's grounder and he was safe. Cross walked. Moore was taken out of the box and Chase sent in. Seybold fled to Keeler. Nichols stole third. Davis to Moriarty, who threw to the plate, but Umpire Stafford called Nichols safe. Cross and Davis worked the bases. Moriarty struck out. Oldring singled, scoring Cross, but Davis was out at the plate. Hoffman to Moriarty. Moriarty blocked Davis at third, and Davis, feeling sure of his contention, walked to the plate, where he was touched out. THREE RUNS.

Ninth Inning.—Chesbro tossed out Lord. Conroy threw out Powers. Plank singled. Nichols struck out. NO RUNS.

(Special to The Evening World.) WASHINGTON PARK, ROCKFELLER, July 3.—After one of the most sensational games ever played at these grounds Donovan's team captured another game from the Giants, winning out in their last half of the ninth inning by a score of 1 to 0. Tommy Corcoran was responsible for the loss, as he fumbled two grounders sent to him by Jordan and Lewis, which, followed by Stricklett's hit to short center, allowed Jordan to score. Seven thousand fans witnessed the game and as Jordan came tearing over the plate with the winning run they went wild.

First Inning.—Shannon drove a high grounder to Jordan, who tossed to Stricklett in time. Brown sent a jumper to Alperman, who threw him out. Devlin's grounder was handled by Lewis and Jordan. NO RUNS. Second Inning.—Alperman patted a hot one to Dahlgren, who tossed to Hannan. Casey lined into Devlin's hands. Lumley out by Corcoran to Hannan. NO RUNS. Third Inning.—Seymour pushed a bouncer to Alperman, who tossed to Hannan. Hannan lifted a long fly to Maloney. Dahlgren singled to right. He got too far off the bag and was caught. Stricklett to Jordan. NO RUNS. Fourth Inning.—Hatch drove a hot liner to Devlin, who lifted a high fly to Devlin. Maloney's liner was not hit for Corcoran. Jordan handled and went for a single. Maloney was caught napping. Taylor to Hannan. NO RUNS. Fifth Inning.—Casey made a great stop of Corcoran's grounder and got him at first. Capt. Jimmy also got Bowerman's grounder out. Taylor then sent a slow one to Alperman, and the Giants took the field. NO RUNS. Sixth Inning.—Lumley made a pretty running catch of Bergen's fly to Shannon. Seventh Inning.—Shannon drove a bouncer to Alperman and went to the bench. Brown was too anxious to walk, and was declared out on strikes. Casey fumbled a grounder to Taylor's hand and bounded to Corcoran, who threw him out. Casey going. Eighth Inning.—Shannon drove a bouncer to Alperman and went to the bench. Brown was too anxious to walk, and was declared out on strikes. Casey fumbled a grounder to Taylor's hand and bounded to Corcoran, who threw him out. Casey going. Ninth Inning.—Seymour was retired by Alperman and Jordan. Hannan struck out. Dahlgren laced a bouncer to Lewis, who threw him out. NO RUNS. Tenth Inning.—Devlin hit to Stricklett, who tossed to Jordan. Stricklett hit to Lewis. Casey to Alperman. Jordan out. Taylor grabbed his bouncer and beating him in the spirit to the bag. NO RUNS.

Vineat Trener, The Evening World's racing expert, to-day again demonstrated his remarkable ability to pick winners. He picked four winners—Roseben, Spooner, Maxnar and Reidmore. (Special to The Evening World.) SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK, July 3.—The betting ring took in a world of money on the fourth race, a mile and a quarter handicap, here this afternoon, but the final headline, the high steeple was a little ahead. First Mason and Red Fir were plunged on to win, and Maxnar, getting the play of the form, was sent from 8 to 1 to 4 to 1. It was a toss up which was the real choice. When it came to running Maxnar showed a fine performance. After following St. Valentine's pace to the far turn he came away and won going away from the fast closing Red Fir and First Mason. Maxnar was exclusively selected by The Evening World. He made the third winner of the day. The favorite had the call in the first three races, but there was a big play on three or four others in each race and this enabled the books to break even.

First Easy for Roseben.

With Minna Ken out, the first race resulted in an easy victory for Roseben, with Haensel, 5 to 1 for the place, as easily second. "The big train" was the prohibitive price of 1 to 6, and 4 to 1 was laid against the field. Haensel, a kick coming on a gap of three lengths on Roseben up to the far turn, and the few brave backers of the gelding were more than nervous. In the stretch, however, Martin let Roseben down, and he came away galloping. Those who backed Cresswell for the place had a kick coming on Horner's handling of the filly. He never let her down. The filly was foreclosed one year ago in the racing edition of The Evening World.

Spooner Captured Second.

The scratching of Sweet Taire in the second race left Spooner, Nimbus and Halket to split the money as the Evening World indicated in its racing edition. Spooner was a well-played favorite, but Halket was backed for thousands, too.

ROCKEFELLER DISCLOSES HIS HIDING PLACE

Chase of Six Days Through Four States Comes to a Sudden End.

United States Marshal Henkel received a telegram late this afternoon announcing that John D. Rockefeller has accepted service at Pittsfield, Mass., of a subpoena calling for his presence in the Federal Court at Chicago on Saturday to give testimony in the Standard Oil suits before Judge Landis. So ends the notable six-day campaign of the process-server who have been looking for John D. and William Rockefeller in four States—at Pocomoke Hills, N. Y.; in Cleveland, O.; at Pittsfield, Mass.; and at Lakewood, N. J. William G. Rockefeller is still evading the deputy marshals who have been seeking him. The hunt for the richest man in America and his millionaire brother has been pressed with such vigor that Mrs. John D. Rockefeller was made seriously ill to-day through anxiety at his home, in Cleveland. It is expected that the appearance of Rockefeller himself in court on Saturday will be followed by astonishing developments regarding the inner workings of the Standard Oil monopoly.

Surprises the Marshal.

The news that he had been found at Pittsfield came as a surprise to Marshal Henkel, as the search in that quarter had practically been abandoned. According to earlier dispatches when Deputy Marshals Frank and Ruhl visited the country home of E. P. Parmelee Prentice, son-in-law and personal counsel of Rockefeller, this morning they were assured by Mr. Prentice that Mr. Rockefeller was not on the place. Relying on his word the two deputies did not attempt to enter the house, but left Taconic Farm, which is the name of the estate, and drove back to Pittsfield. "So far as I know," Prentice was quoted as saying, "Mr. Rockefeller is not in the State of Massachusetts." "Is he in the State of Massachusetts?" asked Ruhl. "I must decline to answer that question," answered Rockefeller's son-in-law. The fact that Mr. Rockefeller was subsequently found in Pittsfield may incline Marshal Henkel to the belief that he is inclined to be a suspicious man. Mr. Rockefeller has been in actual hiding at Pittsfield, and that Mr. Prentice evidently considered it a part of his duties, as a son-in-law and personal counsel, to give misleading information to the officers of the Government.

Search Made Wife Ill.

CLEVELAND, July 3.—Mrs. John D. Rockefeller was made seriously ill by the determined hunt for her husband by the United States marshals, who have been trying to serve him with a subpoena to appear for examination before Judge Landis, in Chicago.

Mrs. Rockefeller is suffering from a nervous ailment and is being attended by a trained nurse.

Mrs. Runyan, Deserted by Clerk of Windsor Trust Company, Tries to Spring to Death as Sleuths Question.

CONCERN OFFERS $2,500 FOR CAPTURE OF FUGITIVE.

Exemplary Young Man Had Been Told Ailment Demanded Change of Climate, but Had Made No Evident Preparation for Departure From Home.

In a frenzy of despair and grief Mrs. Helen Kearney Runyan tried to throw herself from a window of her apartments in West Eleventh street this afternoon, while Pinkerton detectives were putting questions to her concerning her missing husband, Chester B. Runyan, the paying teller of the Windsor Trust Company, who is accused of committing the most unusual and amazing bank defalcation of years.

Mrs. Runyan, who is a frail little woman, has been in a serious state ever since she learned of her husband's flight. This afternoon, when the detectives paid their second visit to her rooms, they were accompanied by her father, P. Kearney; her brother, James Kearney; her physician, Dr. Dugan McPherson, and two officials of the Trust Company. In the midst of the examination Mrs. Runyan, who had been lying down, suddenly staggered to her feet.
